NATION IS SHOCKED

Citizens Join Leaders in Voicing Sorrow and Paying Tribute

By ROBERT D. McFADDEN

Shock, sorrow and the sense of a historic leader lost were the mourning themes of public officials and private citizens across the nation last night as word spread that Lyndon Baines Johnson was dead.

From the White House and the halls of Congress where he had served, and in cities and towns across the land where he had campaigned and made his policies felt, there was an outpouring of tribute to the former President, Senator and Representative from Texas.

Statement by Nixon

Many recalled Mr. Johnson's efforts to promote racial equality, to fight poverty and to improve education; others said that his deep commitment to the war in Indochina had pre-

Apparent Heart Attack Comes as Country Mourns Truman

Special to The New York Times

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 22 — Lyndon Baines Johnson, 36th President of the United States, died today of an apparent heart attack suffered at his ranch in Johnson City, Tex.

The 64-year-old Mr. Johnson, whose history of heart illness began in 1955, was pronounced dead on arrival at 4:33 P.M. central time at San Antonio International Airport, where he had been flown in a family plane on the way to Brooke Army Medical Center here.

A spokesman at Austin said that Mr. Johnson's funeral would probably be held Thursday at the National City Chris-

- The New York Times, January 23, 1973

The New York Times had a somewhat mixed and confusing front page write-up on the Supreme Court's "Roe vs Wade" abortion decision, likely because the Supreme Court itself was not clear in its decision when speaking about possible restrictions in the second and third trimesters of pregnancy.

The headline read:

High Court Rules Abortions Legal the First 3 Months,

... followed by a sub-headline:

State Bans Ruled Out Until Last 10 Weeks,

... followed by the first sentence of the article which read:

WASHINGTON - Jan. 22 - The Supreme Court overruled today all state laws that prohibit or restrict a woman's right to obtain an abortion during her first three months of pregnancy.

The reader is left wondering exactly what the Supreme Court decision said...was abortion allowed only in the first three months, or were abortions allowed until only until the last 10 weeks of pregnancy?
